

As a musician and screenwriter, I ask you to please DO NOT relax the rules regarding giant corporations owning media. The American public is already too vulnerable to the monopolies that exist in radio and TV. We need more DIVERSITY in media, not less. Don't contribute to the new American trend of global homogenization.